POPE LAID TO REST

Solemn and Impressive Obsequies Took Place in the Basilica of St. Peter's.

COFFIN PLACED IN LEAD CASKET.

The Ceremonies Criticized Because the Cardinals Did Not Participate in the Entire Procession.

Cardinal Gibbons Arrived in Rome Sunday—Drove to the Vatican and Paid His Respects to Cardinal Oreglia, the Camerlingo.

Rome, July 27.—The body of Pope Leo was buried in St. Peter's Saturday night. At sundown the most important and most solemn of all the obsequies took place. The front doors of the basilica were closed, and the vast church, except for a row of lights at the shrine of St. Peter, the candles about the bier and those persons who had quietly and with the utmost reverence gathered there, appeared deserted.

The monsignors of the basilica, aided by the noble guard, laid all that was mortal of Leo XIII. in a cypress coffin lined with red satin and bearing on the cover an inlaid cross. The entire sacred college and Prince Colonna rising to their feet as a last tribute and sign of respect.

When the body had been carefully put in the coffin it was entirely concealed with the red velvet covering which had been on the bier. The major domo put beside the body two silk purses containing coins of silver and a bronze medal, struck during Leo's pontificate.

When all had been arranged the supreme prayer was said and the last benediction given, all present joining in. Half suppressed sobs were heard on all sides.

The second coffin was of lead and very heavy. On the cover, at the head, was a cross, just below which was a skull and crossbones, while below these were the arms of the late pope, with the triple crown, but without the keys, signifying living victory.

A Third Casket.

These two coffins were then enclosed in a third casket of polished walnut without decorations.

When the last supreme moment came, the heavy coffins, weighing in all 1,322 pounds, were rolled out of the chapel, preceded by mace bearers and choirs, singing as they went, and followed by all the cardinals. Pulleys were attached to the coffin, and soon, to the strains of the "Benedictus Dominus Deus Israel," it was hoisted into the stone sarcophagus above the door, where it will remain until the grateful cardinals created by the late pontiff shall erect a suitable tomb in the basilica of St. John Lateran, which was chosen by the pope himself as his final resting place.

At the sixth meeting of the congregation of cardinals held Sunday 45 cardinals were present. Cardinal Della Volpe, voicing also the opinions of some of his colleagues, criticized the ceremonies in connection with the interment of Leo XIII. Saturday night because the cardinals did not participate in the entire procession and complained generally of the lack of order. Cardinal Oreglia replied that he had already noticed this and that he would punish those who were responsible.

MEETING OF THE CARDINALS.

Ceremonial of the Conclave Established By Gregory XV. to Be Followed.

The ceremonial of the conclave established by Gregory XV. is to be followed at the coming meeting. The cardinals have decided during the conclave to eat in common in order to facilitate their work. A local paper quotes the response of Cardinal Svampa to a question as to whether he believed the conclave would be of lengthy duration, as follows: "On the contrary, I think it will be very short. I believe that two days will suffice to reach an agreement."

Cardinal Gibbons arrived here Sunday, accompanied by Father Garvan, his secretary. He was received at the station by Mr. Kennedy, rector of the American college at Rome, and Father Hertzog, procurator general of the order of Sulpicians. They drove to the Sulpician house, where mass was celebrated. Being tired and the hour being late, Cardinal Gibbons did not attend the meeting of the cardinals Sunday morning. In the afternoon he drove to the vatican and paid his respects to Cardinal Oreglia, who received him most cordially. He had a conversation with the latter in which the camerlingo informed Cardinal Gibbons of the leading decisions made by the congregation with reference to the conclave. Cardinal Gibbons will receive no one except cardinals until after the conclave.

ON SQUABBLE CREEK.

Fierce Was the Battle and Two Men Are Dead of Wounds.

Jackson, Ky., July 27.—A duel was fought on Squabble creek, in Perry county, in which both participants were killed. The men were playing cards on the mountain side by the light of a pine knot. An altercation occurred between John Hall and Elsha Smith, during which both drew their guns and opened fire on each other. Hall was shot through the stomach and Smith through the head and in the abdomen.

The other participants in the game took to their heels and fled to the woods. Later they informed the friends of the duelists, who found both men writhing in the agonies of death. They were taken to their cabins on Squabble creek and Dr. Kash was sent for. He pronounced both men mortally wounded. When found the fingers of Hall still grasped the revolver that shortly before had sent a bullet through the brain of his nearest neighbor. A 45-caliber Colt's revolver was lying by the side of Smith with two chambers empty. Both men were farmers. Hall was 22 years old and leaves a wife and one child. Smith was 31. A wife and two children survive him.

TWO BLAZES IN LOUISVILLE.

In the Nick of Time Bacon Was Rescued By the Firemen.

Louisville, Ky., July 27.—The building of the P. J. Botto Trunk and Leather Co., 328 West Market street, was gutted by fire early Sunday morning, two hours after the burning of Peter Kuhn's china store next door. The building was on fire at the same time as Kuhn's place. The second blaze originated on the roof and was caused by the smoldering embers from the first fire. Loss, $10,000; insurance, $3,000.

John Bacon, of the dry goods firm of J. Bacon & Sons, was asleep over Isaac Myer's millinery store, next door. He was rescued by Sergt. Chas. Buddhut, who broke down a door after Mr. Bacon was almost overcome with smoke.

Fireman Jack Flabb fell three stories and was dangerously injured. The police are investigating the Kuhn fire. They say they are confident that it was of incendiary origin.

Cut Both Fatally.

Owensboro, Ky., July 27.—Chris Heady and John McMurtry, farmers, got into a fight with Casher Kaelin Sunday afternoon, and Kaelin, it is said, cut both of them fatally. Heady can not live through the night and McMurtry, it is believed, can not possibly recover. Kaelin is in jail and his two alleged victims are in the hospital.

Five Negroes Shot.

Madisonville, Ky., July 27.—A dispatch from Providence, Ky., Sunday night, says that in a fight among Negroes there Saturday night, five Negroes were shot, and some of them fatally. Bud Morris, a Negro from this city, who was reported as connected with the shooting, has fled.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning.

Covington, Ky., July 27.—Harry Koester, aged 15 years, of 1211 Lee street, accidentally discharged a flouber gun several days ago, the bullet lodging in the instep of his foot. He did not report the occurrence to his parents, and now he is threatened with blood poisoning.

Peacock Attacked a Child.

Covington, Ky., July 27.—A vicious peacock attacked the 2-year-old son of Peter Lunkenheimer, of this city, at the Lookout house, on the Lexington pike. The timely arrival of assistance saved the child from having both eyes pecked out. The child was badly injured.

Benson Takes Up Runners.

Lexington, Ky., July 27.—C. Christie, of Kansas City, has purchased a dozen youngsters from blue grass breeders and will attempt fame and fortune on the turf. His stable will be trained and raced by Dick Benson, the well-known trotting horse trainer.

No Trace of W. M. Phillips.

Louisville, Ky., July 27.—The police have not been able to get any trace of W. M. Phillips, of 422 Ward avenue, Bellevue, Ky., who wrote Chief of Police Gunther that he was going to jump into the river. The police believe he has carried out the threat.

Death of Louis Reutlinger.

Louisville, Ky., July 27.—Louis Reutlinger, formerly a teller in the defunct German national bank of Louisville, died in Cleveland Sunday. Reutlinger was one of the witnesses who sent to prison J. M. McKnight, president of the bank.

MORE RACE RIOTS.

Two People Killed, 22 Wounded and Police Station Wrecked at Danville, Ill.

THE COUNTY JAIL WAS DAMAGED.

The City Is in the Hands of the State Troops and a Feeling of Uneasiness Prevails.

One Negro Was Lynched and His Body Burned—A Bitter Feeling Between the Two Races Has Existed For a Long Time.

Danville, Ill., July 27.—James Wilson, colored, was arrested charged with brutally assaulting Mrs. Thomas Burgess, wife of a farmer, at Alvon, just north of here, Saturday. He confessed when placed in jail. A mob of 600 men started for the county jail clamoring for his life.

On the way a Negro named John D. Metcalfe, said to be a fugitive from Evansville, Ind., became involved in an altercation with some of the mob. They started for him and he pulled a gun and fired. Henry Gatterman, a young butcher, fell mortally wounded, expiring a few seconds later. The Negro was arrested by the officers, but the mob soon took him away from the officers and hanged him to a telegraph pole. His body was later cut down and taken to the square in front of the jail and burned.

The mob then made an attack on the jail in a vain effort to get Mrs. Burgess' assailant. A battering ram was improvised and an assault made on the jail and the sheriff and the guards resisted and finally fired into the crowd. Twenty-two persons were wounded and the riot commenced.

The police station was wrecked and the county jail had almost all its windows shattered.

The city is now in the hands of the state troops and a feeling of uneasiness and dread prevails everywhere.

After daylight appeared Sunday morning there were restless crowds on the streets. Hundreds of farmers poured into the city and each surrounding town contributed to swell the crowd. There were many miners seen on the streets.

Great unrest and a threatening attitude was reported from Westville, five miles away. Early in the morning Wilson, the Negro assailant of Mrs. Burgess, was secretly taken from the county jail but was returned shortly after 5 o'clock Sunday morning to the jail.

The Militia Arrive.

Four companies of militia arrived at 8:30 Sunday morning from Springfield. Companies A, I, B and H, of the Seventh Illinois Infantry, were sent in reply to urgent requests sent at midnight to state officials. The troops marched to the market house opposite the jail and camped. Streets were cleared and the threatening attitude of the crowds disappeared. There were sullen threats heard, but no attempt at an outbreak was manifest during the day. Sunday night 100 sentinels were patrolling the streets in the immediate vicinity of the jail. Each soldier carries 40 rounds of ammunition.

Sheriff Whitlock said Sunday in giving his version of the shooting into the mob: "After I saw from the jail that the mob was determined to attack, I went to the veranda and attempted to talk to the maddened men. As I stepped into view of the crowd two bullets were fired, one striking the wall back of me. I fired two shots into the air. Some one shouted that I was only bluffing and was shooting blank cartridges. I warned the mob I would resist an attack on the jail with powder and lead. There was another shot from the mob and it surged forward. I then fired a shot from my shotgun into their legs. This drove them back but they returned a moment later to the attack of the front door. I was alarmed for the safety of my wife and children. My wife took a gun and said she would stand by me. I got her and the children out of the way and then, seeing the leaders coming with the rail to batter down the walls, I shot down the rail to make them drop it. This accounts for so many being shot in the hands and arms. I fired eight or ten shots in all."

Sheriff Whitlock had four deputies and three constables with him in the jail guarding the prisoners. He says none fired into the mob but himself.

Leading citizens say the outbreak has been expected by them for a long time, as bitter feeling has existed for several years between the Negroes and a certain class of white persons. A number of miners' outbreaks have occurred during the past year.

The feeling against the soldiers is noticeable. The commissary department Sunday had much trouble getting restaurants to serve meals. Many refused to feed the soldiers. There was one clash between the guard and a miner named Ed Liggett, who began abusing the guard. The soldier leveled his bayonet and Liggett was arrested and fined $100.

RUGGLES CAMP MEETING.

A Large Crowd Attended the Services Sunday—Campers Delighted With These Beautiful Grounds.

[Correspondence of BULLETIN.]

RUGGLES CAMP GROUNDS, July 26, 1903.

Ruggles camp meeting has opened in real earnest. Never in the history of the association has the spirit of God been more manifest. Every service, the children's meeting, the sunrise prayer meeting and all the other services have been well attended, and the people come away filled with delight. The weather has also been in our favor, a cool refreshing breeze prevailing nearly the whole day, and though the hot sun is shining and the weather extremely dry, yet it is pleasant in these lovely woods, and the nights have simply been grand, just cool enough to make a blanket necessary and to make one sleep well. The fact that a large number had been here for a week before the meeting, and are now saying that they would like to stay for the summer, gives evidence enough that this is the place for our Maysville people to come too if they want a little rest, and get good too,—both body and soul.

The Sabbath opened most delightful, and the people began to come in large numbers as early as 8 o'clock in the morning, until we had a much larger crowd than we had on the first Sunday last year, and when the 10 o'clock services opened, the Rev. Dr. Blodgett had a tabernacle filled full of anxious hearers. He took for his text, Romans 8: 23v. "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord," and while he spoke the immense congregations were perfectly spell-bound, they listened with intense interest, and at the close, people went away declaring they would like to have listened longer, although it was then past the dinner hour. It was a grand sermon and went home to every heart. The same could be said of Dr. Blodgett's Saturday night sermon from Romans 8: 15 and 16 verses, "The spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God."

Rev. E. S. Dunham the evangelist, has been preaching every afternoon at 3 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock at night. His sermons are full of earnestness and of the spirit and both the preachers and the people are delighted and greatly profited by them and good results are sure to follow. Rev. Dunham will be with us throughout the meeting and I trust many more of our Maysville people besides those already here will get to hear this evangelist.

There are people here from far and near,—Chicago, Cincinnati and other cities, and from the upper counties of Greenup, Boyd and Grayson, so that the good of this now well established camp meeting we trust will be felt in many hearts of this and other States. It is a perfect delight to everyone coming here to note the good behavior, not a thing to disturb anyone. It is so quiet and peaceful that it makes our police force look as if they were unnecessary.

To-morrow I will give you the names of all preachers here as well as the families from Maysville. J. W.

SHOT AT FROM AMBUSH.

An Attempt to Assassinate Riley Coldiron at Jackson, Ky.

Jackson, Ky., July 27.—There was much excitement here Sunday over an attempt to assassinate Riley Coldiron Saturday night. Coldiron was with James Gear when two shots from ambush were heard, one of the bullets passing through Coldiron's clothing. Coldiron testified before the grand jury the past week that he saw Britton and Spicer with Jett at the time Jett is charged with killing Town Marshal Thomas Cockrill and when Britton and Spicer were indicted certain county officials attempted to have Coldiron indicted for perjury.

Three Were Drowned.

New London, Ct., July 27.—Mrs. C. T. Thorpe, Miss Annabel Rogers and Samuel Gobet were drowned in the Thames river by the capsizing of a pleasure boat, while attempting to cross the river.

RAILWAY WRECKS.

Four Men Were Killed and 25 or 30 Passengers Injured in a Head on Collision.

BOTH ENGINES BADLY DAMAGED.

Baggage Car Struck a Small Building and One End Went Through the Side of Structure.

Three Persons Killed and a Score Injured in a Collision Between a Train and a Street Car Near St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., July 27.—Two trains met in a head-on collision on the Chicago Great Western railroad early Sunday and the result was four men dead and about 25 or 30 passengers injured.

The two trains were the Twin City limited and a fast freight. The limited was running as a first section from Oelwein, Ia., to Minneapolis. The second section consisted of an excursion train running from Des Moines to Minneapolis and was three hours behind time.

The fast freight, south bound, received an order at Dodge Center reading that the second section of the passenger train was three hours late and the crew evidently misread the order and attempted to make Vlasaty siding between Dodge Center and Hastings, Minn., thinking that it was the limited that was late.

That the two trains came together with terrific force was evidenced by the fact that both engines were badly damaged, but they remained standing upright on the tracks. The baggage and buffet cars were completely wrecked. The baggage car struck a small building and one end went through the side of the structure.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 27.—An accommodation train on the Vandalla road en route to St. Louis ran into a well filled electric car on the East St. Louis and Suburban street railway near Lansdowne, three miles north of here, Sunday, killing three persons and injuring a score.

The crash of the collision was terrific and was heard a long distance. The accommodation train was drawn by an engine which was backing, and was running at a good rate of speed when suddenly the tender of the engine crashed into the trolley car at the street crossing. The car was hurled from its track a mass of wreckage. The impact caused the coaches to break loose from the engine and they did not leave the track, but the engine left the rails, ran about 200 feet over the ties, and turned over on its side. Engineer Roy and Fireman Higgins stuck to the engine and were buried in its wreckage. After being removed Engineer Roy died at the hospital. Fireman Higgins is so badly injured that he can not live. The two were plucked under a jet of scalding steam and their screams were agonizing. Nothing could be done until jackscrews were secured and the engine raised. Roy and Higgins begged to be killed outright that they might not suffer the torture they were undergoing. When they were finally taken out both were literally parboiled. Beattie and Lenhardt, the two other men who were killed, were standing on the platform of the street car when the crash came. They were hurled almost 30 feet and were picked up dead.

HURLED TO THEIR DEATHS.

Father, Mother and Infant Killed by a Train on the Crossing.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 27.—Joshua Butler, wife and infant child, were struck by the eastbound Black Diamond express on the Lehigh Valley railroad late Sunday afternoon, while driving across the track at Port Bowley, six miles from here, and all three are dead. The horse was also killed and the carriage demolished. The occupants were hurled fully 100 feet, the woman's death being instantaneous; the babe was tossed over the locomotive and was found lying in the tender on top of the coal. It was still alive but died a few moments later.

Mr. Butler was found in a field near the track. He was not killed outright, but died within an hour after the accident. Mr. Butler was a truck farmer, 32 years of age. His wife was 23, and the babe was one year old.

Louisville, Ky., July 27.—Ellis Shearer, the 11-year-old son of Oliver Shearer, died in the city hospital of lockjaw. The boy was wounded by a toy pistol July 4. The weapon exploded and injured his hip.

County Judge Stephens, of Covington, will attempt to break up the imposition of other counties in loading their paupers on Kenton county.

The gentleman from Louisville is not apt to have an opportunity to take a nap in the executive manieion at Frankfort.

The Chicago Tribune, a Republican paper, while contending that no evidence has yet been produced showing that Perry S. Heath "has committed any criminal act," yet admits that "it is sufficiently established that he ran constantly on the borderland of outlawry." And then the Tribune says:

"The irregularities in the Postoffice Department under his administration were constant and deliberate. He knew all about them. He sanctioned them. He instigated them. He wished to violate the civil service rules by making appointments in an irregular and unlawful manner, and he did it. He behaved as a representative of the lowest type of political spoilsman. This is not the worst about Mr. Perry Heath. His tenure of office in the Postoffice Department was marked by scandalous conduct from beginning to end. More than any other official in Washington he seems to be responsible for the frauds in the Cuban postal service."

This being true, the Commoner wants to know why Mr. Roosevelt should hesitate to direct the arrest and prosecution of the Secretary of the Republican National Committee? Can it be possible that the Roosevelt administration intends to confine its proceedings against small politicians who were without important influence? It would, to be sure, be unfair to convict Mr. Heath on the charges preferred against him without fair and thorough investigation, but if half that has been charged is true, Mr. Heath should be proceeded against just as would be done in the case of an influential man against whom serious accusations were made.

Political Pointers.

Fulton Leader: "The good people of Kentucky have sidetracked the Republicans for such dirty work as was done by Taylor and his band of hoodlums, and since the Republicans still applaud and approve of Taylorism the Republicans will never get into power in Kentucky again. The Democrats will win this fall easily by 20,000 majority."

Cynthiana Democrat: "If Democrats over the State are as harmonious and well-lined up as those in Harrison County there can be no doubt of the result in November."

Nothing is too good for the patrons of the Maysville Elks Fair, August 19th-22nd, and for their entertainment there will be the greatest free attractions ever offered on our fair grounds, in front of amphitheater each day. The famous Bickett family, aerialists supreme; Kennedy Bros. Wild West and Roman Hippodrome; Weber's Grand Military Band of Cincinnati, and a premium list of $1,500,—in fact premiums in every department have been increased.

CHALLENGED A MAYSVILLIAN.

Did the Late Cassius M. Clay, But Their Seconds Effected a Compromise.

[Extract From a Sketch of Cassius M. Clay.]
 Gen. Clay became offended once—in the late fifties—at the action of a citizen of Maysville, whose identity he always refused to reveal. A duel was arranged with pistols at short range. Selecting the late John M. Clay, the youngest son of the great commoner, as his second, Gen. Clay got in his buggy and started from Lexington to Maysville, a distance then by pike of sixty-five miles. Below Paris the rain began to fall in torrents, and as it had been a long wet spell the creeks and small streams over which he and his second had to cross were dangerously swollen. The latter wanted to turn back, and said: "General, we are liable to get drowned, and you can wait and fight that man some other time!"

The old warrior never even condescended to answer his young second, but kept driving on, swimming the horse over creeks and rivers, and in some places they were forced to stand up in the huggy in water up to their knees. They got to the place selected for the fight on the outskirts of Maysville on time, but a compromise was effected by the seconds, and the proposed duel never came off.

That is the reason Gen. Clay will not name his opponent upon that occasion. Says he: "The gentleman made me ample apologies, and that is all I take it that the public should ever know."

Albert S. Barrett and Miss Emma Van Hart, of Cincinnati, were married Saturday at the Central Hotel by Rev. J. M. Evans.

A Citizen of Maysville Pays a Well-earned Tribute.

The following public statement of a respected citizen adds one more emphatic endorsement of merit to the scores that have appeared before.

Mrs. Philip Fiet, of 129 East Fifth street says: "Our son used Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, with great benefit. He was troubled with a disturbed condition of his kidneys for a long time, evidenced by backache, brick dust sediment in the secretions and a tendency to inflammation of the bladder. The use of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills proved them to act up to their presentations made for them."

RURAL DELIVERY.

Official of the Department Making Investigations With a View of Establishing a County System.

An official of the Postoffice Department is spending a few days in Mason County, making investigations with a view of establishing a county system of the rural free delivery service,—thus giving every part of the county the benefit of this free delivery.

Congressman Kehoe has been working for several months to secure for this county such a service. At present there are five routes in operation in the county, four radiating from Maysville and one centering at Mayslick.

If the people of the county want this service they must make the fact known. No route can be established that is less than twenty-five miles in length, and with less than 100 families as patrons.

THE INDIAN BAND.

The Open Air Concert Enjoyed by a Large Crowd Saturday Night.

A large crowd turned out last Saturday night to listen to the concert rendered by the Indian band at the New Central Hotel. We repeat that Maysville has cause to feel proud of this splendid organization. The boys were at their best and rendered an excellent program.

The tuba solo rendered by Mr. Lewis Harding brought forth much applause. Messrs. Arthur Fletcher and Arthur Munzing were also honored for splendid renditions of baritone and alto solos.

THE MARKETS.

Review of Trade in Live Stock at Cincinnati the Past Week.

Cattle—At the beginning of the week prices advanced 15¢ to 20¢ for best grades and 10¢ to 15¢ for common to fair grades of butcher cattle; since then the market has been rather slow, with the advance scarcely sustained. Stockers and feeders are slightly easier than a week ago. At present the offerings of butcher are plentiful and market quiet, but there is a good demand for choice shipping cattle. Milch cows are slow sale. Bulls are quite and about steady.

Hogs—The market was active all week, with advancing tendency to prices, good packing and butcher grades which sold a week ago at $5.40@ $5.55 now bringing $5.70@ $5.80, and pigs which sold a week ago for $5.75@ $5.85 now bringing $6@ $6.15. Receipts have been only moderate and of satisfactory quality, and the demand at times was rather keen between local killers and Eastern buyers.

Sheep—Sheep have been in good demand during the past week, with an advance of about 20¢ to 30¢, best bringing $4. Lambs are selling now about the same as a week ago, best bringing $6.40@ $6.50, but earlier in the week the market was weak, tops bringing only $6.15@ $6.25 on last Monday. Receipts are moderate.
